Internal Academic Audit Report Academic Year 2021-22

The Academic Audit Committee, operational within the Staff Council, conducted a comprehensive examination of academic activities for the academic year 2021-22 in the last week of November 2022. The aim was to evaluate various facets, including admissions, orientation programs, teaching pedagogy, evaluation processes, research orientation, and continuous quality enhancement initiatives.

- The admission process for the academic year successfully enrolled 1671 students against the sanctioned 1490 seats.
- The distribution of class timetables by the TICs before the commencement of classes.
- Effectively communicated workload to faculty members in advance, ensuring transparency and fairness in the distribution.
- The TICs efficiently assigned co-academic responsibilities, leading to the successful organization of co-curricular events.
- Aligned teaching with the academic calendar, systematically covering syllabus topics.
- Faculty members adhered to timetables, ensuring regular and punctual classes.
- Conducted assignments, tests, and quizzes in accordance with University requirements.
- Facilitated active faculty participation in external examination processes, covering roles in invigilation, paper setting, and checking.
- Faculty members actively engaged in research work, contributing significantly to the college's academic vibrancy.

Recommendations:

While acknowledging the commendable overall performance, the committee recommends continuous efforts to diversify research areas, expand co-curricular opportunities, and further enhance faculty development initiatives. These steps will ensure the continual enhancement of academic excellence and student-centric practices at the institution.
