

P.G.D.A.V. College

University of Delhi

Nehru Nagar, Ring Road, New Delhi – 110065

Website: <http://pgdavcollege.in>

Email: pgdavcollege.edu@gmail.com

Supporting document

for

Self Study Report, 2018-2023

Criteria 1.4

Feedback System

Table of content

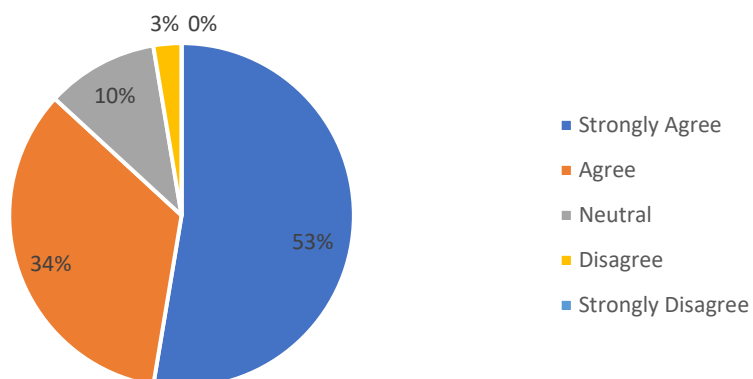

Feedback from different stakeholders 2022-2023	3-13
Feedback from different stakeholders 2021-2022	14-24

Analysis of Feedback form

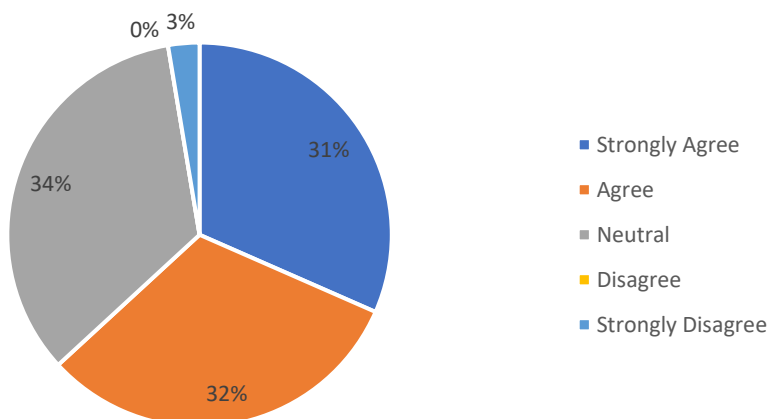

Analysis of Feedback form for Alumni

Alumnae feedback reflects that the syllabi is appropriate with respect to the course and enhances the employment opportunities. The alumni is also satisfied with the educational resources provided to assist the course.

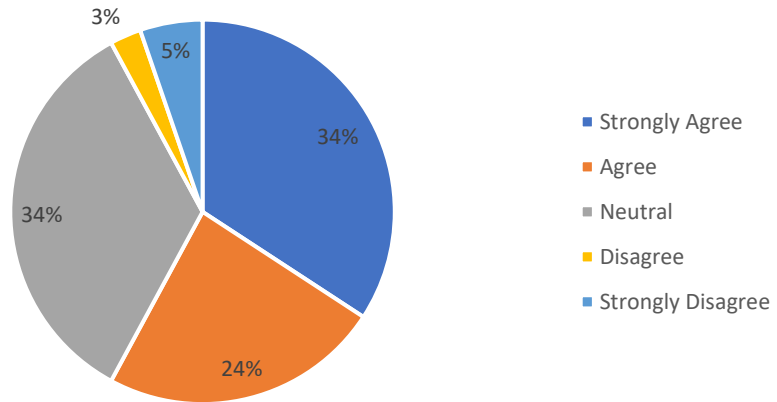

Appropriateness of syllabi with respect to the course

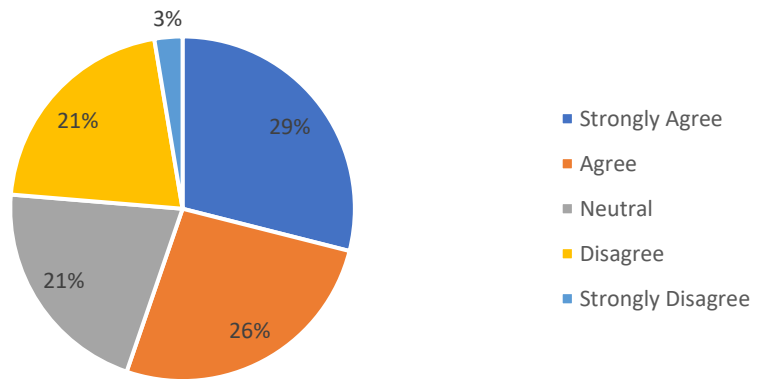

Usefulness of syllabi in Career

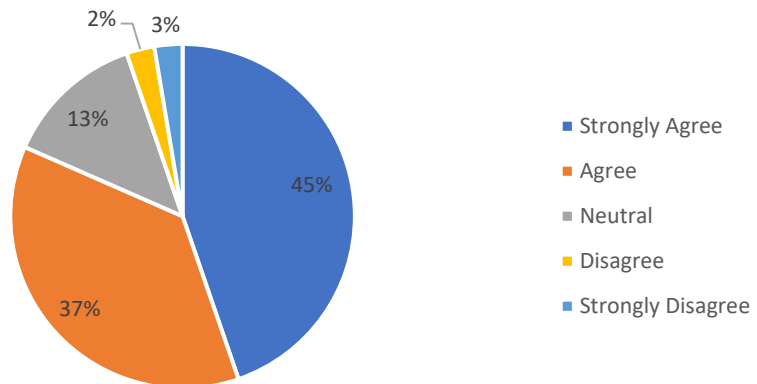

Extent to which the syllabi assists Practical Skills

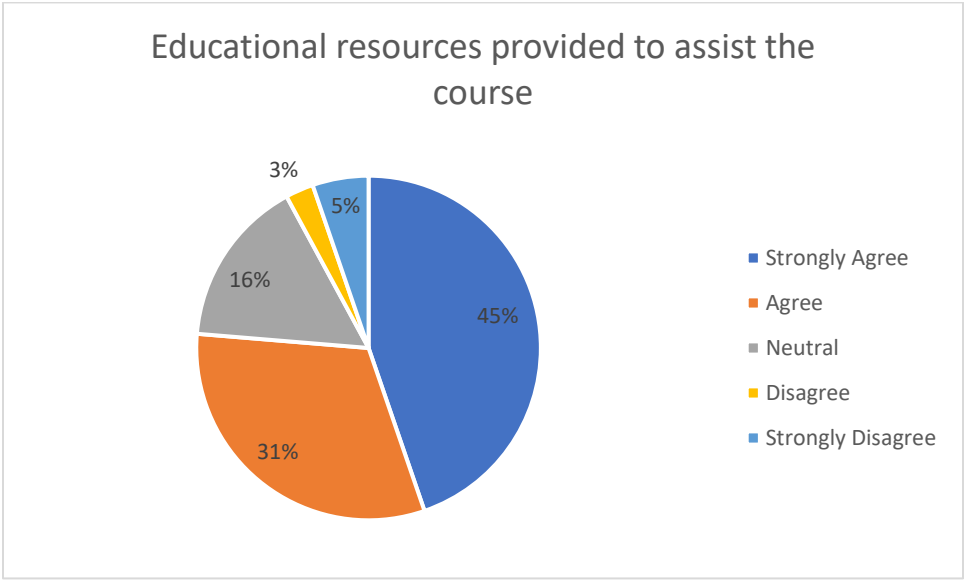

Appropriateness of syllabi to enhance the Employment Opportunities

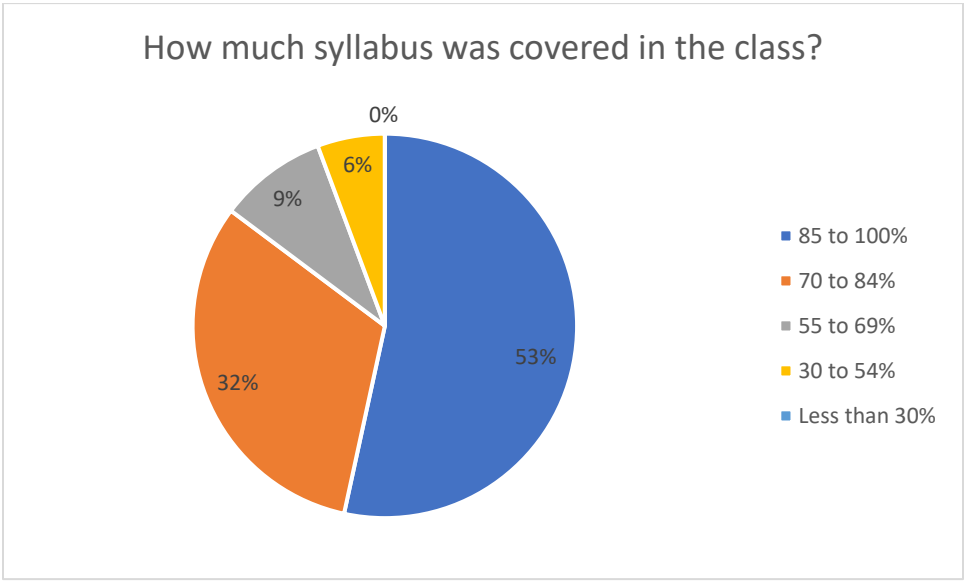

Offerings of General/GE subjects with respect to Course studied

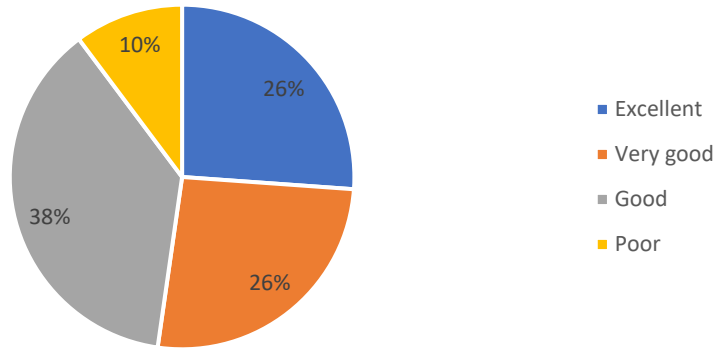

Analysis of Feedback form for Students

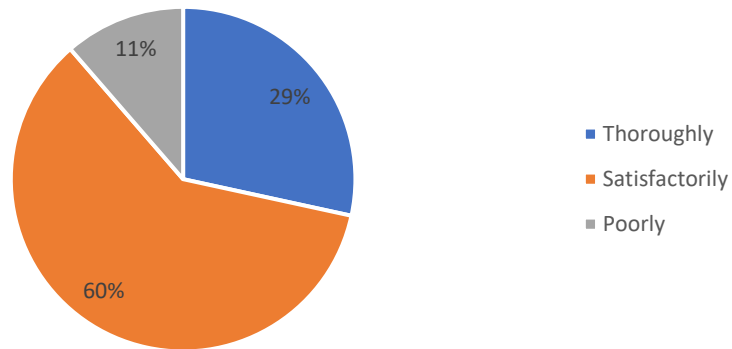

The students’ feedback on curriculum, syllabus, content of delivery, exposure to industry, material available in library and teaching learning process in the college was collected and analysed which is presented as shown below. The students are highly satisfied about the relevance of course content. As per the feedback, students expressed their satisfaction on the relevance of the syllabus for higher studies and employability.

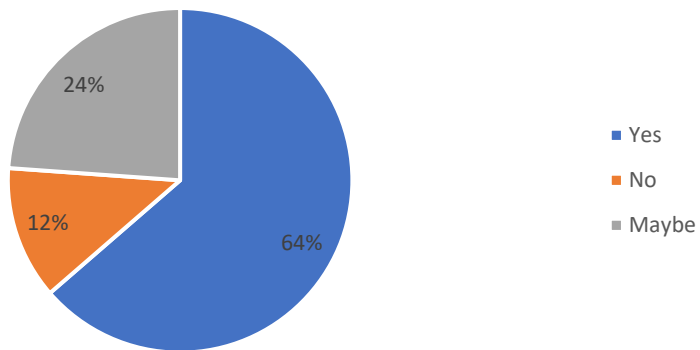

Does the syllabus has balance between theory and applications?

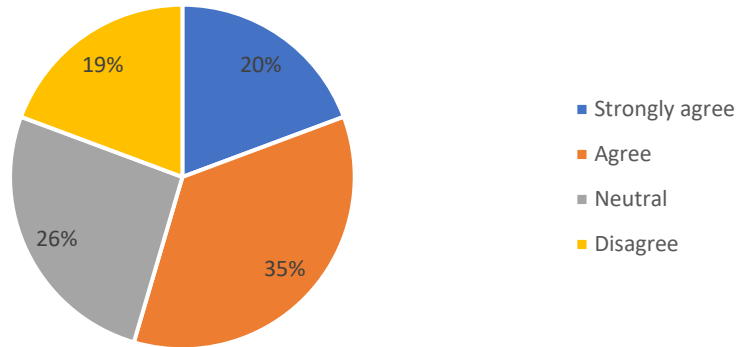

How well was the content of the syllabus prepared and delivered?

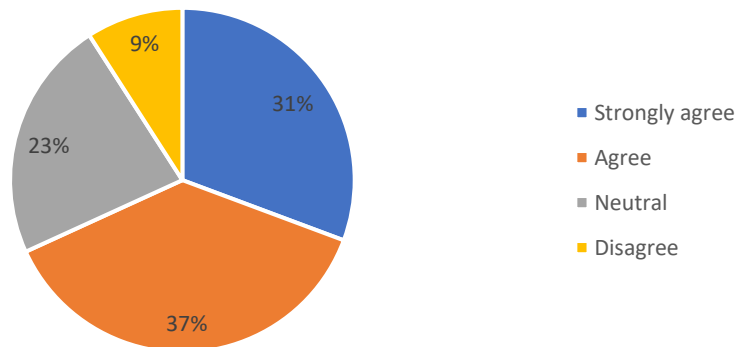

Does the curriculum has prospect for higher education and employability?

Are Sufficient number of prescribed books and reference materials available in the Library?

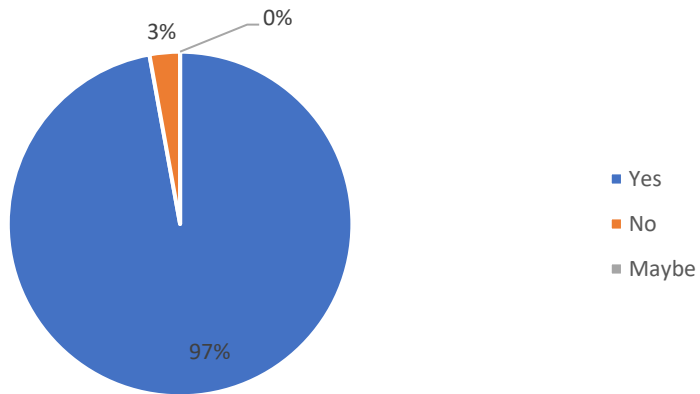

The overall teaching-learning process in the college is very good.

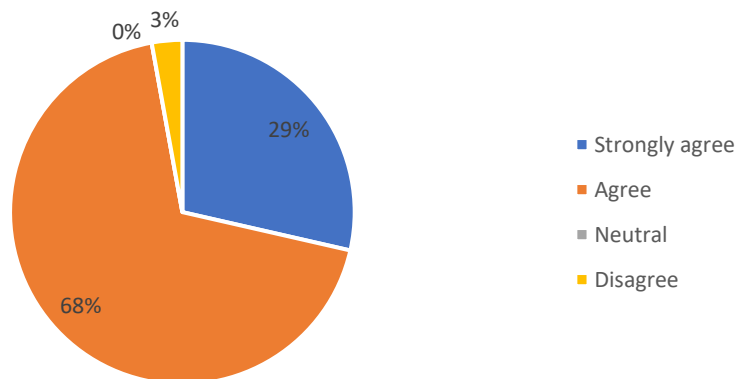

Analysis of Feedback form for Teachers

As per the feedback, the teachers mentioned that the curriculum is need based and suitable to the course. More than 90% teachers agree with the relevance of syllabus with the current academia, research and industry. 72% teachers also agree with the time given for the completion of the syllabus.

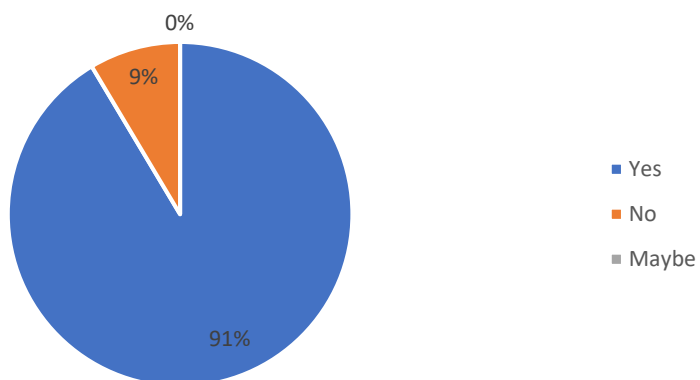

The syllabus is suitable to the course and need based.

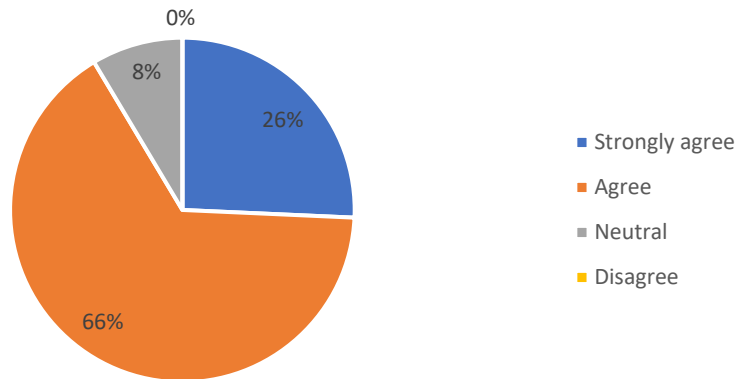

Is the syllabus suitable for both – fast and slow learners?

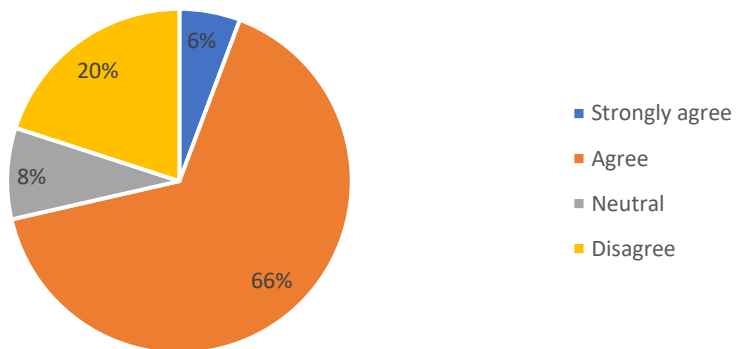

Is your syllabus in line with current trends in academia / research / industry?

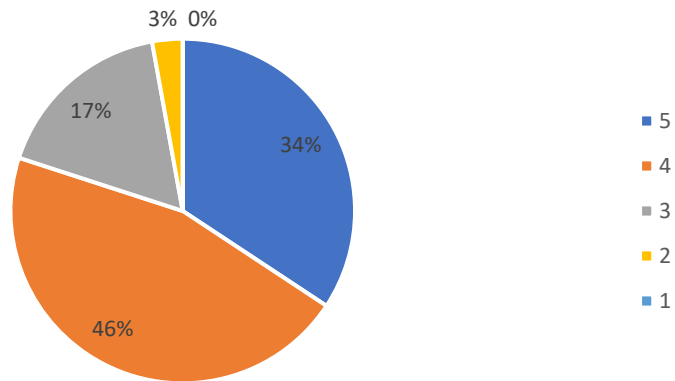

Does the course structure provide opportunities to innovate and add while teaching?

Do you find the time given for the completion of the syllabus adequate?

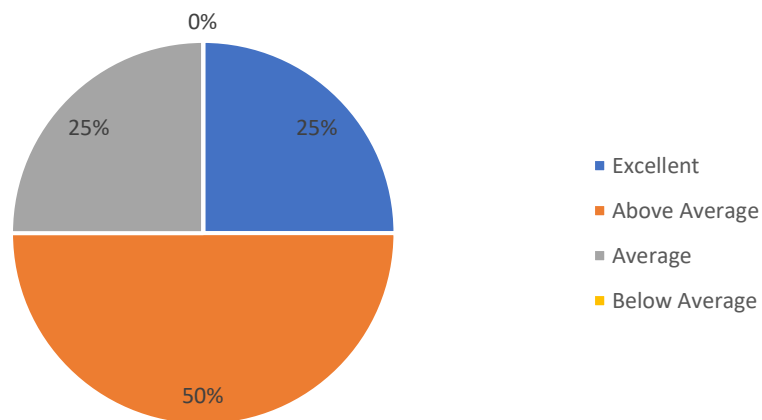

Please rate the reading material prescribed for the syllabus on a scale of 1 to 5 (5 being the best)

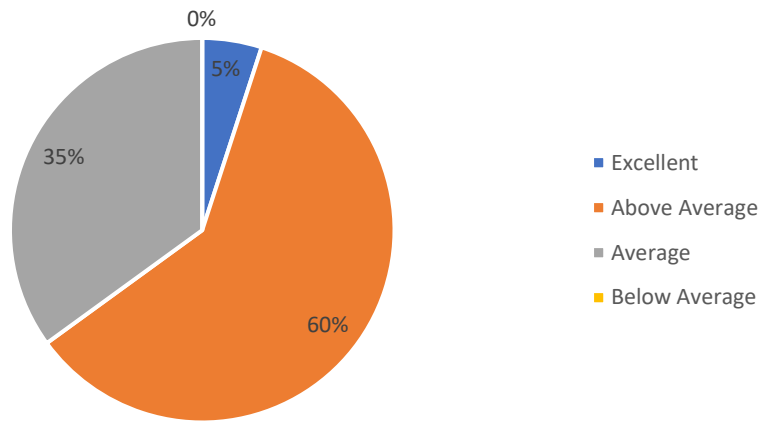

Analysis of Feedback form for Employers

Feedbacks were obtained from the employers. The employers very much appreciated the innovative skills and administrative attributes of our students. Most of them agree that the students are academically proficient having good domain skills, communication skills, and aptitude. The students are best at their innovative skills and well prepared for the selection procedure.

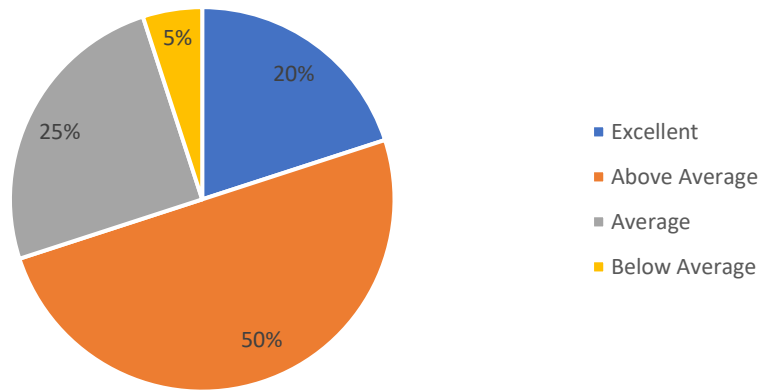

Academic Proficiency

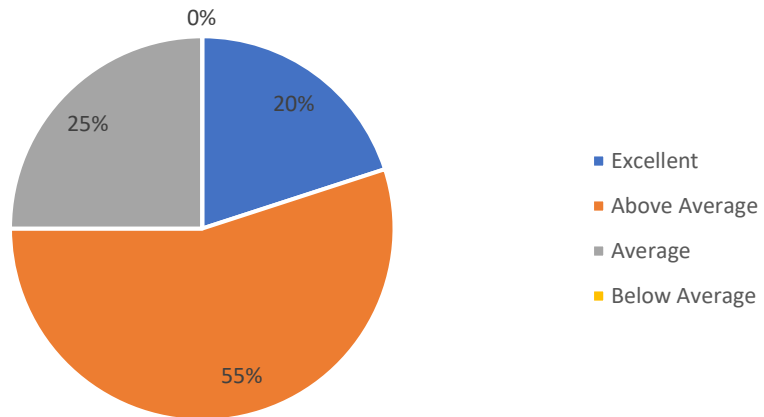

Domain Skills

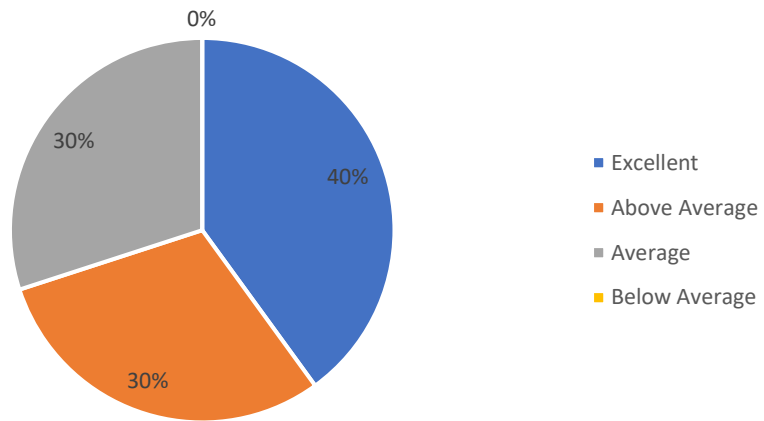

Communication Skills

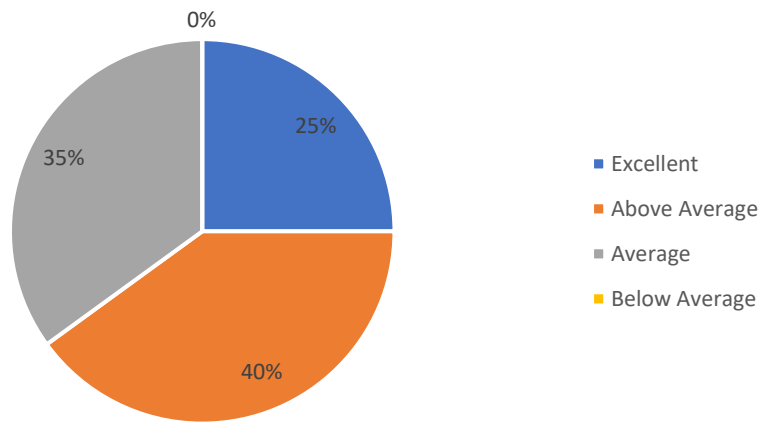

Aptitude

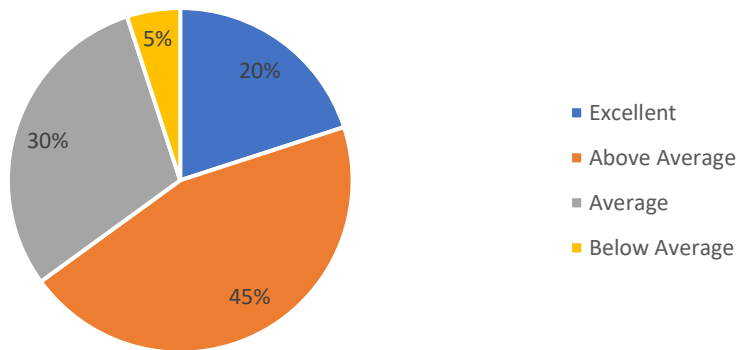

Innovative Skills

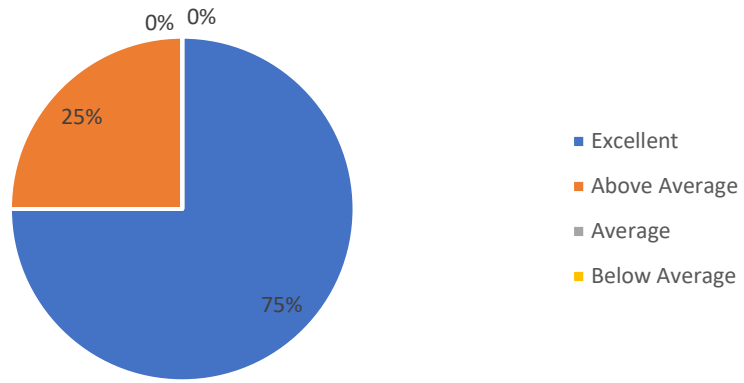

Resume preparation

Students' preparedness for the selection procedure

Administrative Attributes [Coordination of the Placement Officers]

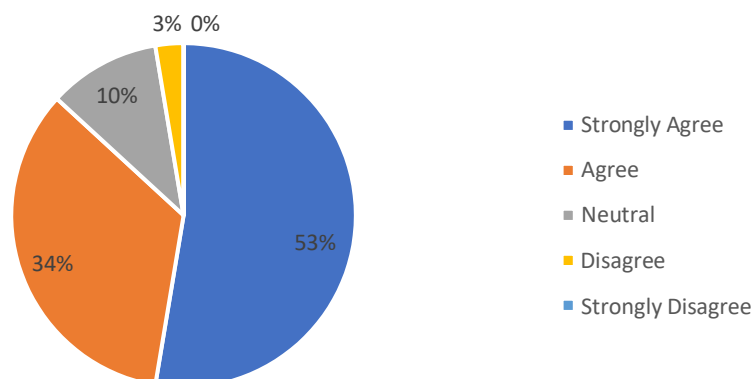

Analysis of Feedback form 2021-2022

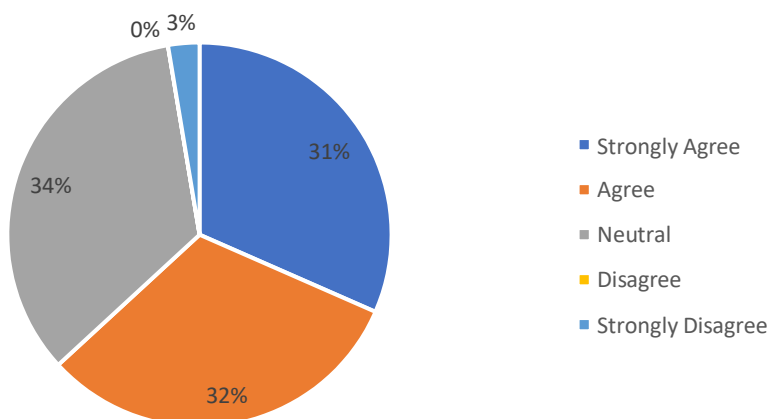

Analysis of Feedback form for Alumni

Alumnae feedback reflects that the syllabi is appropriate with respect to the course and enhances the employment opportunities. The alumni is also satisfied with the educational resources provided to assist the course.

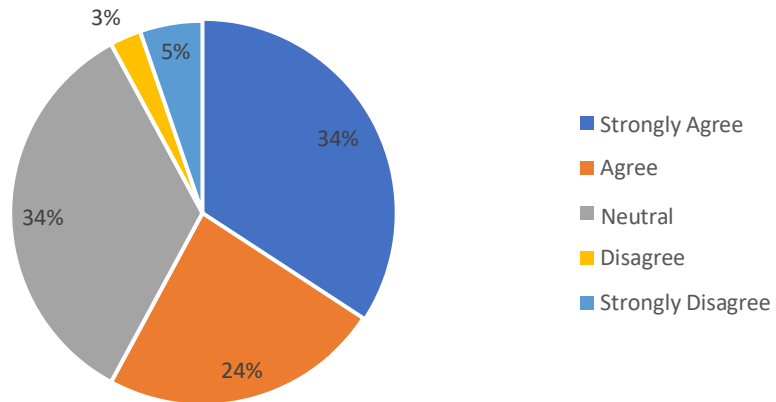

Appropriateness of syllabi with respect to the course

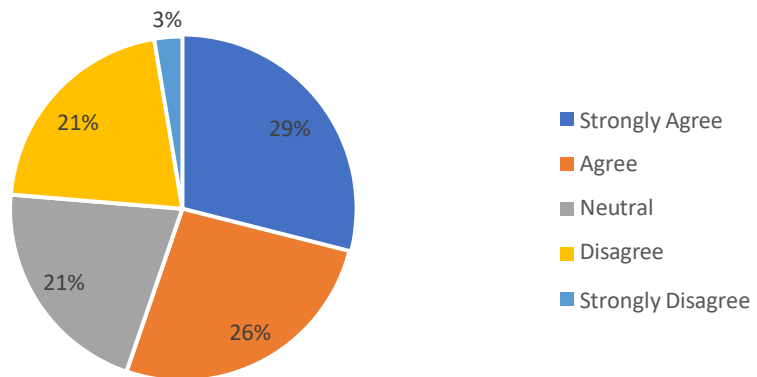

Usefulness of syllabi in Career

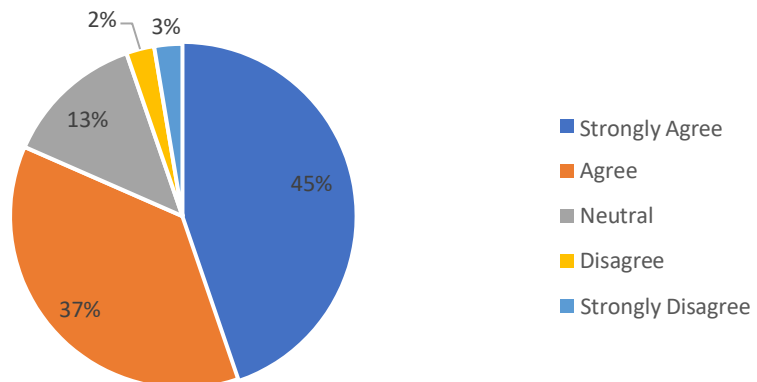

Extent to which the syllabi assists Practical Skills

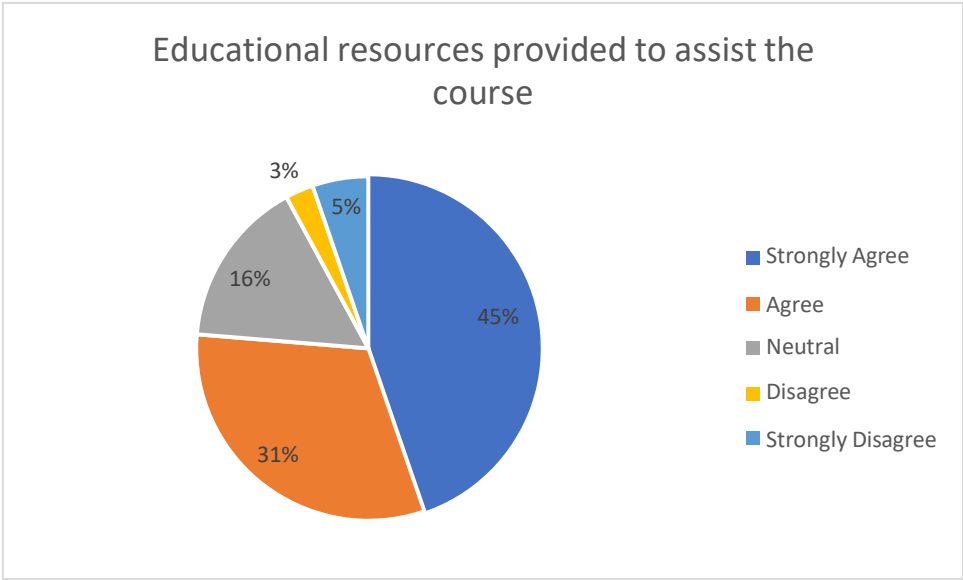

Appropriateness of syllabi to enhance the Employment Opportunities

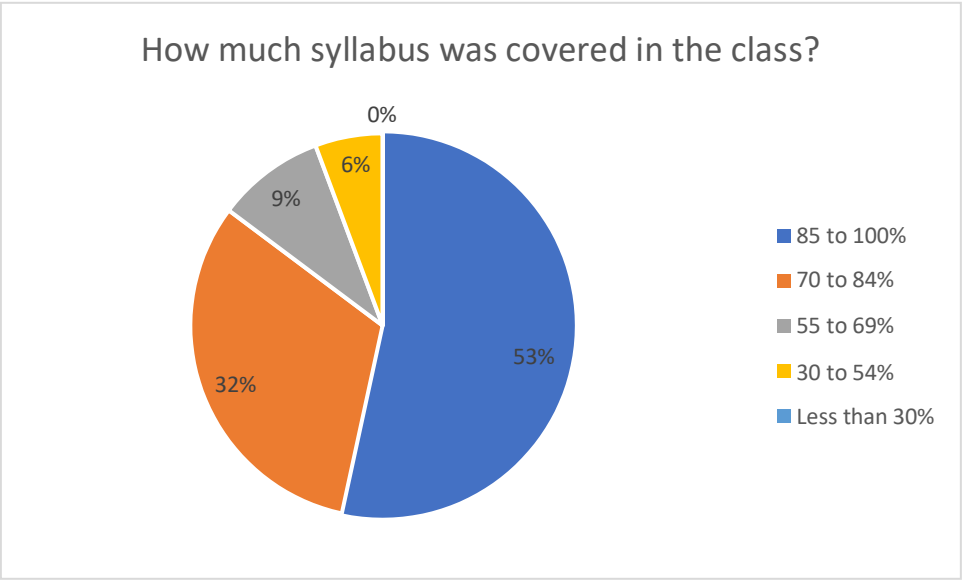

Offerings of General/GE subjects with respect to Course studied

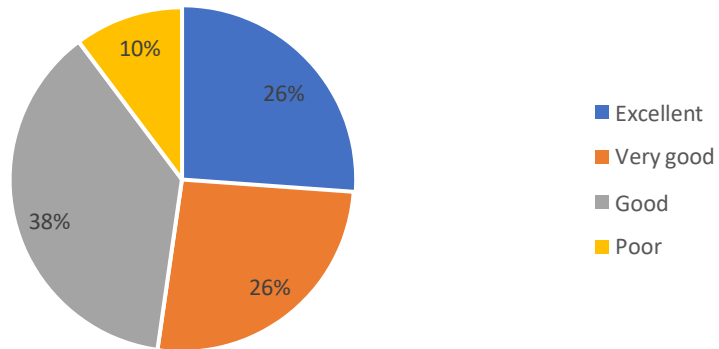

Analysis of Feedback form for Students

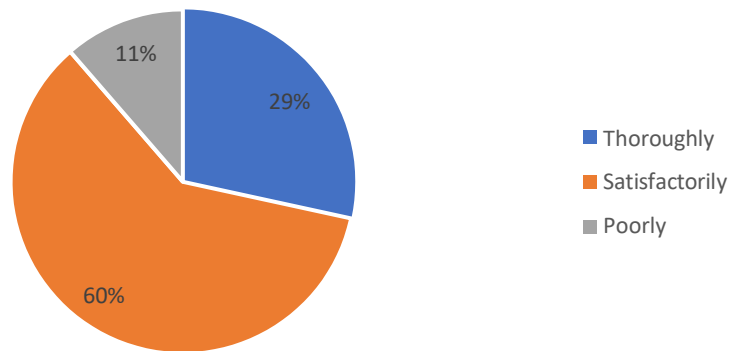

The students’ feedback on curriculum, syllabus, content of delivery, exposure to industry, material available in library and teaching learning process in the college was collected and analysed which is presented as shown below. The students are highly satisfied about the relevance of course content. As per the feedback, students expressed their satisfaction on the relevance of the syllabus for higher studies and employability.

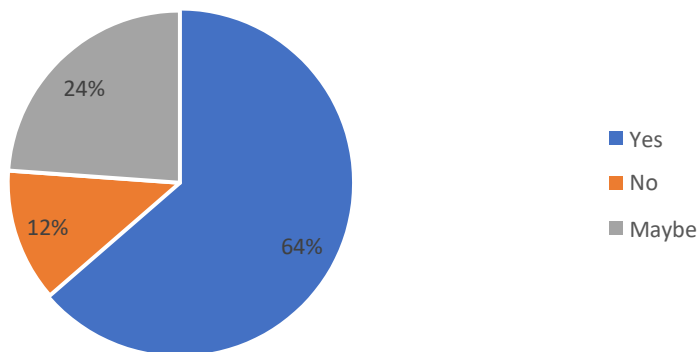

Does the syllabus has balance between theory and applications?

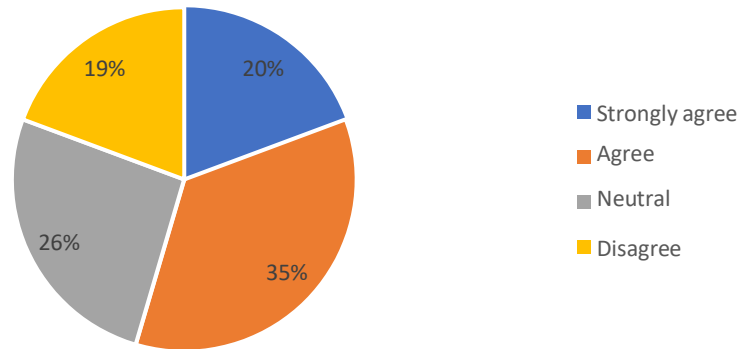

How well was the content of the syllabus prepared and delivered?

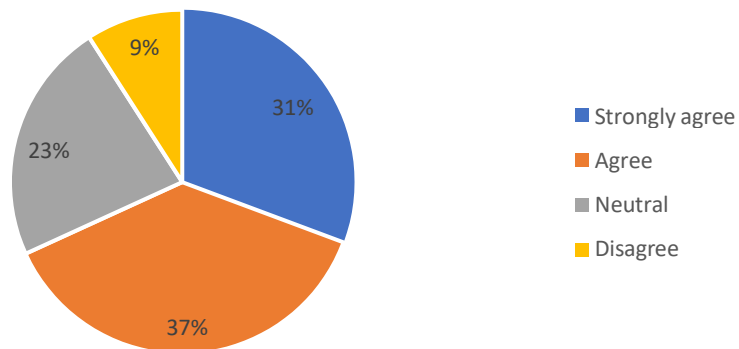

Does the curriculum has prospect for higher education and employability?

Are Sufficient number of prescribed books and reference materials available in the Library?

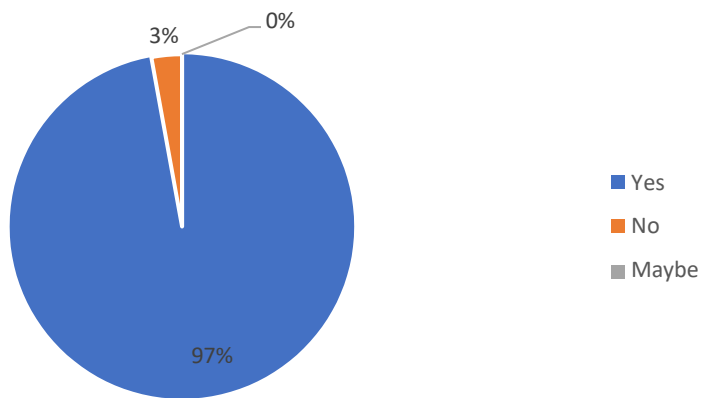

The overall teaching-learning process in the college is very good.

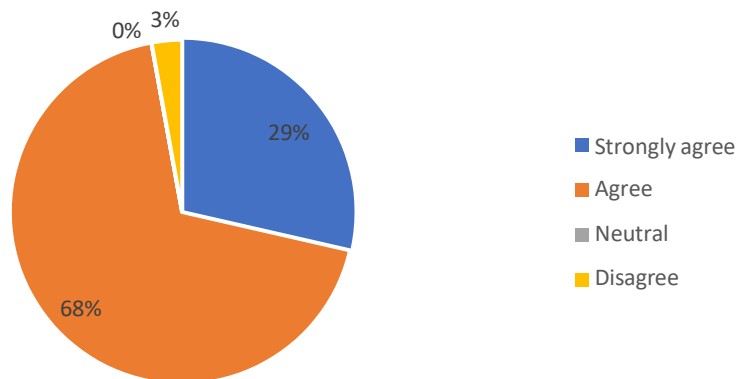

Analysis of Feedback form for Teachers

As per the feedback, the teachers mentioned that the curriculum is need based and suitable to the course. More than 90% teachers agree with the relevance of syllabus with the current academia, research and industry. 72% teachers also agree with the time given for the completion of the syllabus.

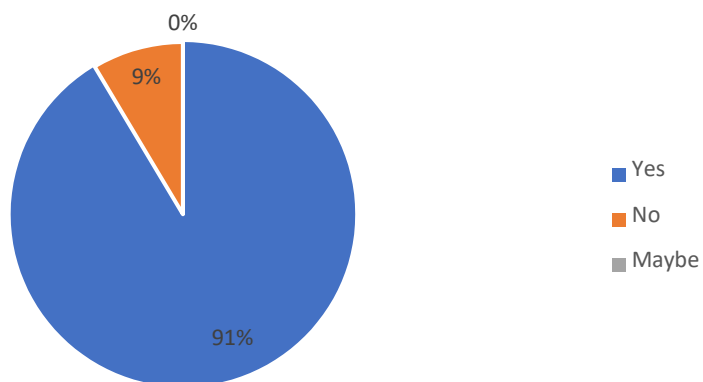

The syllabus is suitable to the course and need based.

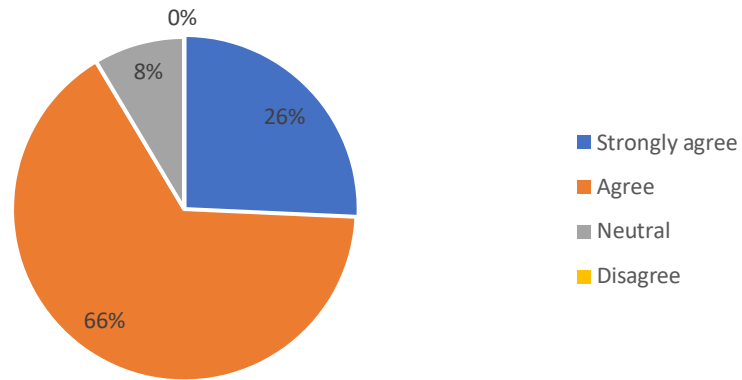

Is the syllabus suitable for both – fast and slow learners?

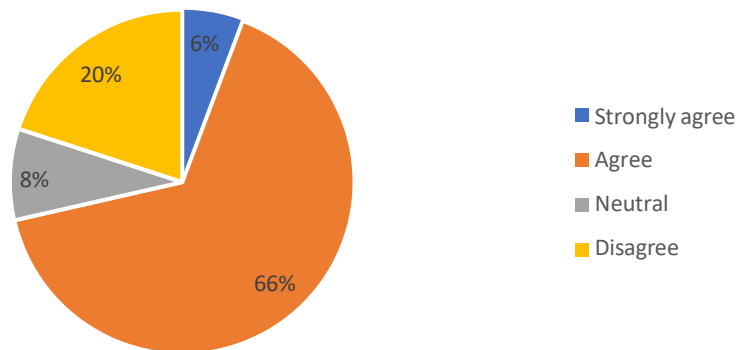

Is your syllabus in line with current trends in academia / research / industry?

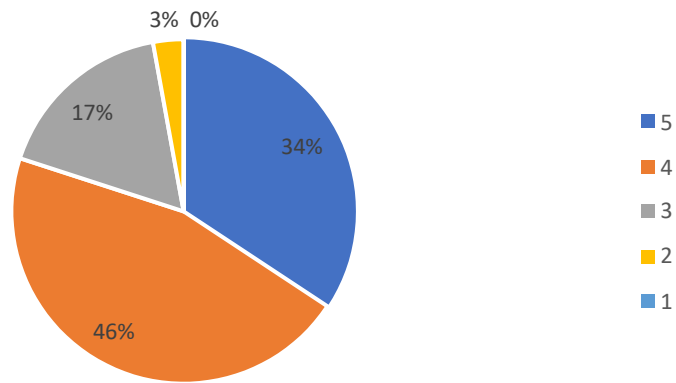

Does the course structure provide opportunities to innovate and add while teaching?

Do you find the time given for the completion of the syllabus adequate?

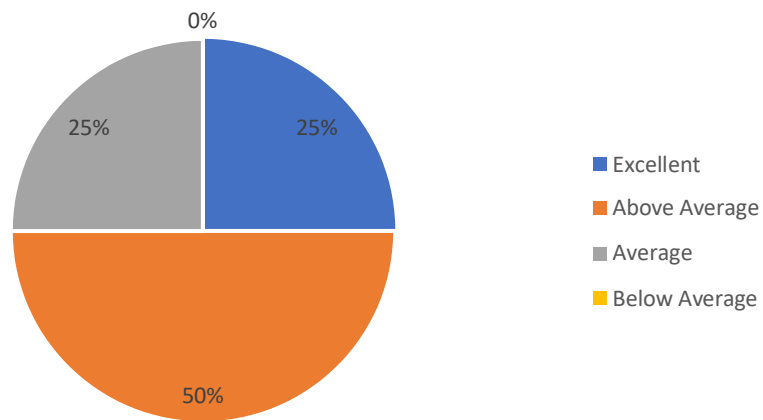

Please rate the reading material prescribed for the syllabus on a scale of 1 to 5 (5 being the best)

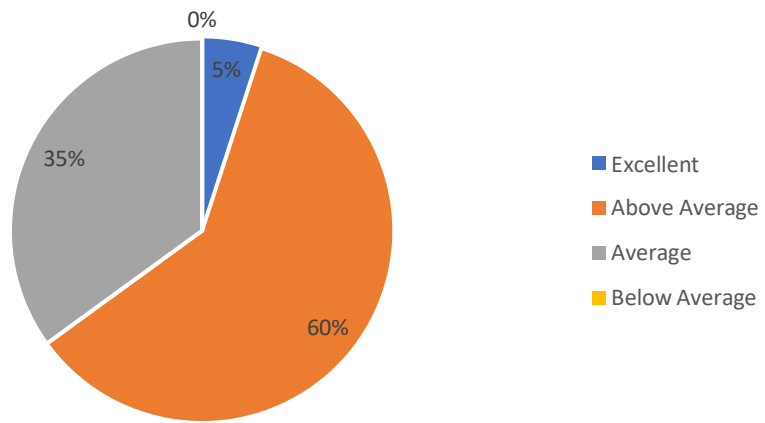

Analysis of Feedback form for Employers

Feedbacks were obtained from the employers. The employers very much appreciated the innovative skills and administrative attributes of our students. Most of them agree that the students are academically proficient having good domain skills, communication skills, and aptitude. The students are best at their innovative skills and well prepared for the selection procedure.

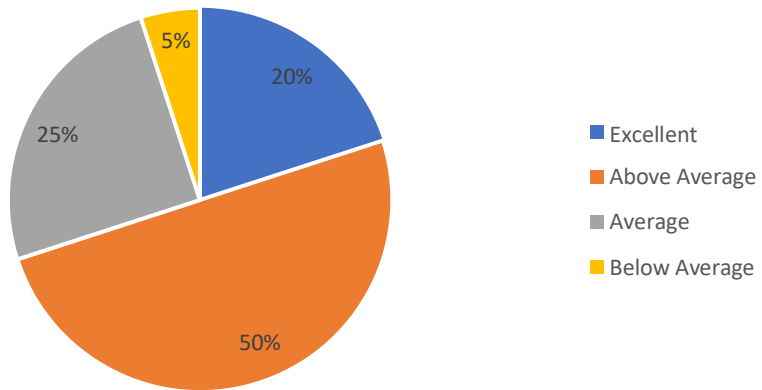

Academic Proficiency

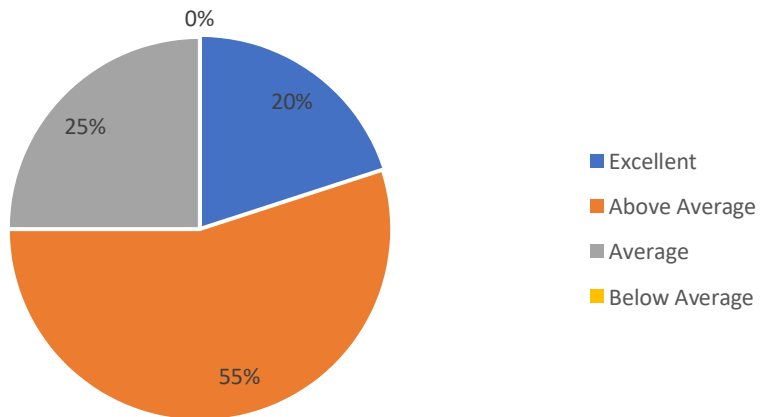

Domain Skills

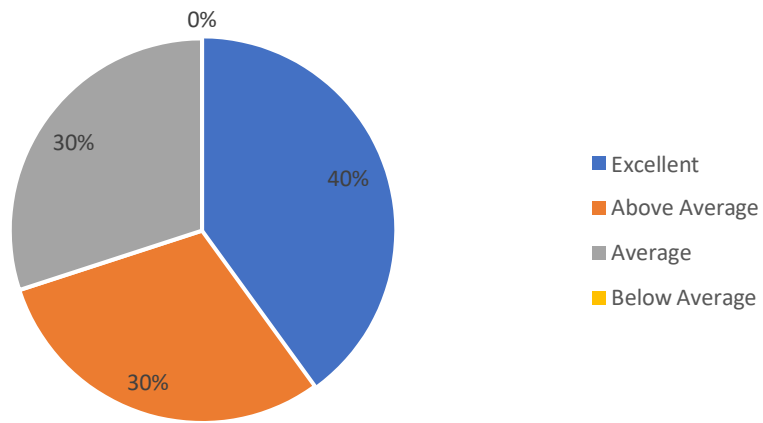

Communication Skills

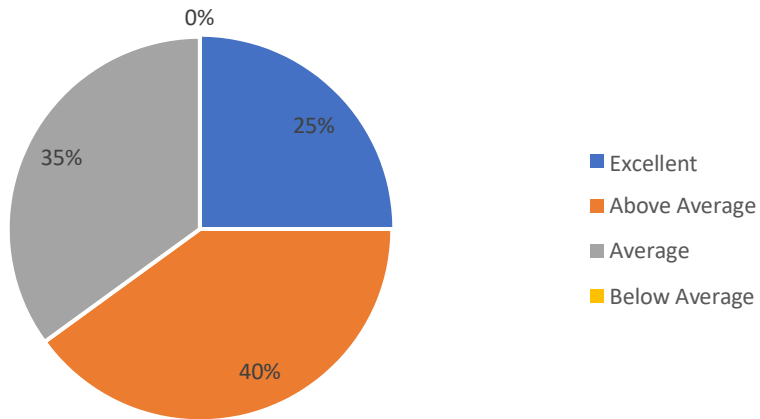

Aptitude

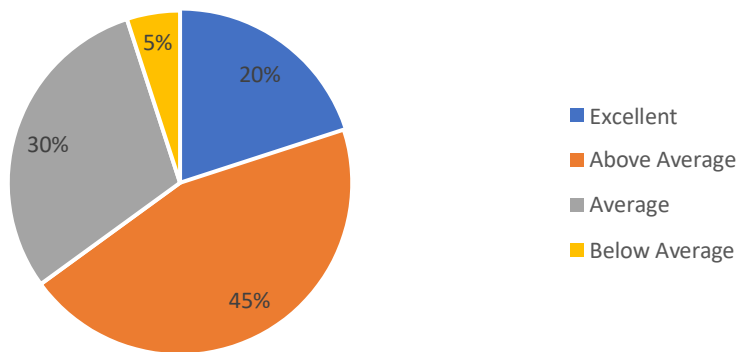

Innovative Skills

Resume preparation

Students' preparedness for the selection procedure

Administrative Attributes [Coordination of the Placement Officers]

