It has been observed that while filling the Examination form for the Semester-II, IV & VI, students are not registering their credential on the Academic Bank Credit Portal. As per University Grant Commission guidelines, students have to register themselves on the ABC Portal.

All the instruction for registration of Students on ABC Portal is available.

In view of the above, I am requesting your good self to motivate the students to register the required information on the ABC Portal as early possible and final verification of the Examination Form may completed after registration by the Student on ABC Portal.
