An online meeting of the IQAC was held on 21.05.2020. The members present took stock of the progress as regards the implementation of the agenda decided on 10.07.2019. Dr. Mukesh Aggarwal was in chair.

The following members were present:

1. Dr. Mukesh Kumar Aggarwal (Chairperson)
2. Mr. K.K. Srivastava (Coordinator)
3. Dr. Dilip Kumar Jha
4. Dr. Pratibha Aggarwal
5. Dr. Darvinder Kumar
6. Dr. Arpita Aggarwal
7. Mr. Surendra Kumar
8. Dr. Mini
9. Mr. Surender Singh
10. Ms. Garima Gaur Srivastava
11. Ms. Sonia
12. Mr. Rishabh Bhatia

The members reviewed the year's activities as follows:

1. All members expressed satisfaction with the successful shifting of all the important administrative work and teaching-learning process to the online mode. Most of the essential work after a short disruption went on uninterrupted.
2. There was unanimous appreciation for teaching faculties initiating their personal platforms with the students over Zoom, Google Meet etc. for taking lectures with each class in order to compensate for the disruption caused by the pandemic. In view of the extended online mode, the University provided G-Suite to all the teachers through College to enable audio/video lectures, interaction with students, uploading of assignments and other shared material, attendance records and grading etc. through this mode. It was also deeply appreciated that the teachers acted as councillors and interacted with the students both personally and academically to keep the student morale up during the stressful time of the increasing number of COVID cases affecting families. The students were given official id's which helped both the students and the college mutually to provide all information required during this period.
3. The members appreciated the efforts of the College and Department level Societies engaging and successfully conducting their activities through online mode.
4. The Department of Mathematics successfully organized a three-day national conference as planned on Advances in 'Mathematical Analysis and its Applications' in collaboration with Department of Science and Technology. Discussions and papers updated the teachers and students with the latest advancements in this field.

5. The national conference planned by the Department of Commerce could not be held due to pandemic disruption. It was decided that the conference be postponed to the next academic session.
6. The Department of Commerce organized an FDP on 'Accounting Standards' for faculty members that refreshed the teaching- learning skills and updated the subject knowledge through interaction with highly accomplished and experienced experts.
7. It was felt that the NSS demonstrated sincere and effective work ethic. The team launched 'PratibhaShakti' and other initiatives to provide vital information, interaction, and services to underprivileged women. NSS was also appreciated for carrying forward project 'Astitva' to provide free education to underprivileged children by holding regular classes for the children from nearby slums in the college and providing them with study material including books, notebooks, pens, pencils etc.
8. Enactus displayed its social responsibility objectives too by successfully launching 'Nistaaran', through which the students undertook the challenge of spreading cleanliness by combining their efforts with waste pickers to inculcate and create awareness about the importance of cleanliness. The team also launched project 'Sugandh' by successfully training the underprivileged community, dwelling close to the College, to convert cow-dung into marketable organic aromatic incense sticks.
9. All the members expressed satisfaction with the timeliness of the appointment of a professional psychologist on campus to provide personal consultation, particularly, in view of the increased trauma due to the pandemic.
10. The psychologist Ms. Himanshi Khanna was appointed on contractual basis.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks to the chair.
