P.G.D.A.V. College has a legacy of nurturing art and a vibrant cultural environment through its cultural society Hyperion. This society's pursuit is to nurture its students to bring out the best in them.

The Hyperion team has worked to the grind throughout the year to ensure that this year was as successful as it was. There has been a constant communication within the core Hyperion team, various society heads and the faculty members. The year started with the admissions and the college auditions for freshers. A brief introduction of the societies and a colourful performance for freshers at Orientation Program marked the onset of yearly activities. Starting with Exploranza, Hyperion then organised a variety of competitions and events throughout the year such as the collaborations with Central Bank of India. To cap off the year, Hyperion organised a successful and much-appreciated edition of the annual fest, Aaghaz - The Onset of Nirvana 2020. The students brought a lot of laurels to the college throughout the year and the list is given at the end of this report. Following is a brief of various activities and achievements of the various societies.

Music surpasses the barrier of language and binds humans together. The music societies of PGDAV college yet again proved music's power by enrapturing the hearts of everyone.

Raaga, the Indian Music Society, is led by the talented team of President Rajat Dhingra, Vice President Ajay Narayanan and Coordinator Rahul Chaudhary. The hours of practice and training have paid off for Raaga and it shows in the year they've had. Raaga, the Indian Music Society of PGDAV college specialises in classical Indian music. This year they created new landmarks by winning prizes in Gargi and JDMC. They lived up to their name by successfully organizing three live musical events. Their impeccable sound arrangements and hospitality impressed the participants and audience alike.

Conundrum, the Western Music Society, beloved by all, regaled for their music and the vibes they bring. President Pranjal Sharma, Vice President Lucky Choudhary and Coordinator
Archit Taneja mobilised their efforts throughout the year to ensure a great term. Conundrum, the fusion band, opened new avenues in their music by experimenting with different genres such as funk, alternative, progressive music etc. They have prepared two ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONs namely 'VYOG' a progressive song and 'LOST MY WAY' a funk rock song, which proves their vocal intrepidity. Conundrum won the third prize in St. Stephens' Battle of Bands and numerous prestigious others in solo singing competitions. They hosted two events in Aaghaaz'20; the Battle Of Bands, and "Fantasia" (the Western Solo Singing Competition) where they showcased their terrific skills in hosting musical events.
Rapbeats is one of the extremely few hip-hop music societies in the university. Led by President Vinay Kumar, Vice President Monu and coordinator Shrinkhala Shrivastava, this year, too, they strived to show why they're the trailblazers in this arena. Rapbeats achieved its goal of imprinting its name to be repeated in the history of hiphop circuit. Rapbeats won events in renowned institutions such as RDIAS, Shiv Nadar

University, and IIT Bombay. They were also invited as guests to perform in DTU, and Ramanujan college. Rapbeats organized Rap Battle and Beatbox Battle in Aaghaaz'20 which ended up as an amazing timestamp in their chronicles.

"A beautiful body perishes, but a work of art does not".

Art remains the flagship of Hyperion which embodies the spirit of our college. Impressions, the Fine Arts society, was last year's best society. Under the leadership of President Muskaan Sawhney, Vice President Mili Sachdeva, and Coordinators Neha Mann and Sanjoli Kanodia, this year, they once again put their best foot forward. They gave a tribute to Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan on the auspicious occasion of Teachers' day through a live art show. Impressions displayed its vibrant artistry throughout the academic year in various hues. They displayed their rich artistic expressions and won prizes in IIT Bombay and other national level competitions. They added the much-needed charisma to Aaghaz- the onset of nirvana 2020 with their wonderful exhibits. Impressions members – Suchit Rajvanshi, Manish Chaudhary, Daksh Aggarwal and Bhavesh Haldwani – made sketches of the Hindi poets who came for Kavya-samelan during Aaghaz- the onset of nirvana 2020. In addition, they organized a Sketching competition, Best out of waste, Monochrome painting and an Art Exhibition which further showcased their capabilities. Impressions got an opportunity from ATKT where five of its members (Muskaan Sawhney, Mili Sachdeva, Sanjoli Kanodia, Esha Sati and Pallavi Singh) got the opportunity to make OFFICIAL LOGO OF JAWA NOMADS for their tour of Punjab.

"The intellect perpetuates the worldly life".

Chanakya, the Intellectual society, owes its successful year to the efforts of its members and its heads. With the help of President Anubhav Tekwani and Vice President Brinda Sarma, its sub-societies have made waves throughout the college and country. There are four societies which come under the flagship of Chanakya and are coordinated by extremely talented people: Buzzer led by Md. Saalim; Qaafiya led by Isha Gupta; Grey Matter by Arjun Chaudhary, and Spectrum by Arsha Goswamy.

Buzzer, the Quizzing society of PGDAV college proved its intellectual prowess by dominating the quizzing circuit. Buzzer won prizes in national and regional level competitions comprising of different formats. With the introduction of new steps, like "The Buzzer Quiz League" intra-society competition and regular practice sessions increased, which further resulted in more participation of students in quizzes. Buzzer organized their annual flagship India Quiz "Acche Din" at the annual fest Aaghaz which further proved their stupendous capabilities.

Qaafiya, the poetry and creative writing society of PGDAV college has had a brilliant academic session. Qaafiya won over 50 national and regional prizes in various competitions held at institutions like IIT Roorkee, IIT Delhi, AIIMS and BITS Pilani, Hyderabad, successfully showcasing their deep attachment with narratives. Apart from that, the society's members were published in online magazines, featured in poetry shows, and called for judging poetry events. Qaafiya also successfully organized its annual slam, Poesies, as a part of Aaghaz'20.

Spectrum, the Anchoring society of PGDAV college coordinated with all the major and minor events of the college with utmost ease. Events like The Cultural Society GBM, Exploranza, the Freshers Talent Hunt Competition, and the annual college fest Aaghaz, the onset of Nirvana, were coordinated outstandingly well. Spectrum energised the crowd by their mesmerizing anchoring skills. Grey Matter, the Debating Society of PGDAV college has had a tremendous academic session which brought in prizes from both National and regional competitions in Delhi. The list comprises of national prizes at IIT-Roorkee, and BITS-Hyderabad. Grey Matter stood out by successfully organising, There's a Dispute, it's annual conventional debate competition as a part of Aaghaaz'20.

"Capturing photos is capturing objects bursting into life. "

Iris, the photography society, helmed by President Hanan Irfan and Vice President Anisha Gupta, has had a brilliant year. Iris took huge strides and excelled at various platforms this year. Iris has expanded from just a photography society to a multi-disciplinary society that spans across all kinds of digital content. In addition to this, they have also kept their bars high by winning accolades in IIT Roorkee and other regional competitions. Iris also successfully conducted the second edition of it's annual fest Ebullience this year. Iris proved it's tremendous growth and capturing the college's history.

To be able to survive in today's society, you don't just need wits but technical knowledge that supports your claims.

Techwhiz, the IT society of PGDAV college proved its technological strength under the direction of Kartikeya, President and Saurabh, Vice president. It further moved forward under the various coordinators for specific areas: Vaishnavi, Coding Coordinator; Akash, Graphic Design Head, and Subhodeep, Gaming&Quiz Head. Techwhiz, the IT society of PGDAV college has had a phenomenal run this year. Techwhiz collaborated with Hansraj and KMC, to facilitate a better environment for coding. They proved their technical expertise by winning prizes in VIPS, Kalindi, CVS, and by maintaining the college website seamlessly. They brought in huge numbers for their various events in coding, gaming and web development in Aaghaaz'20. Techwhiz have put tremendous efforts for technical development in the college and will continue to do it further.

Acting out emotions is giving life to the pages of books in a visual form which appeals to everyone. Acting is not just a skill to be showcased but the rawest form of bravery.

Navrang, the Stage Play Society of PGDAV college has turned heads and gained appreciation from everyone. The heads of Navrang, President Kumar, Vice President Abhay Jain, and coordinators Yuga Sharma and Asra Khatoon, have put in all their efforts to their society and it shows in its performance this year. Navrang gained a diverse range of experiences in the academic session. Their self-directed play won second prize at AIIMS and hearts of many from IIT Roorkee and IIT Bombay. Their annual fest Abhivyakti'20 was a huge success where they were praised for their hospitality. Navrang is giving its best in every field and is living up to their legacy.

Rudra, the Street Play Society of PGDAV college deserves all the applause in the house because of its sterling presence. Rudra continues to grow ahead under the leadership of Ankita Mamgain and Saurabh Bassi who share the president post. The Vice President Aayushi Saini, Coordinator Muskaan Seth and Treasurer Aayushi Aggrawal are the reason behind Rudra's staggering growth. Rudra is one of the most reputed street play societies in the circuit. Their annual production, 'Meri Khwaish' based on the theme of prostitution has brought in laurels from IHE, IBS Gurgaon, and MSIT. Rudra also performed at the National School of Drama, Manthan International theatre fest, and won several best music awards. Rudra was lauded by the audience and participants for their annual fest "Shor" which showed their excellent organisation skills.

Dance is more than moving bodies in sync to the beats. It embodies the spirit of humans and how far they have evolved.
The dance society of our college lives up to its name, Diversity and apprises us of various cultures. Diversity, headed by President Parul Gupta, Co-President Manpreet Walia and Vice President Vaishali, consists of three sub-societies, all of which have done amazing this year. Three societies which come under Diversity are Spunk led by Ritu, Jalsa led by Tushar Singh and Natraj by Ishani Nag.
Jalsa, the Folk Dance Society of PGDAV college made a strong impact in the dance circuit. Their moves are refreshing to watch, they can easily be nicknamed as the vitamins of the college. In addition to their name, they won laurels in MDI Gurgaon, Aravalli and Lingayas. Manpreet and Muskan have done the society proud by being the lead dancers in the Punjabi Music Video of the famous singer Sukhshinder Shinda. In Aaghaaz'20, Jalsa organized Jashan, the folk dance competition which sported remarkable performances by students. Jalsa continues to abide by its rich legacy and moves ahead with their powerful moves.
Spunk, the Western and Street Dance Society of PGDAV college is extremely popular for their experimentation in various dance styles such as hip hop, waacking, house, dancehall etc. Spunk began to battle in street dance battle this year onwards and is an integral part of the circuit now. Spunk won multiple prizes in various colleges such as GL Bajaj, Delhi Metropolitan Education. Their Western Group Dance event and Street Dance competition at Aaghaaz'20 enthralled the audience and warmed hearts of participants by their warm support.
Natraj, the Indian Classical Dance Society of PGDAV college is one of the finest societies in the circuit. The members are well trained in varied art forms such as Bharatanatyam, Kathak and Mohiniyattam. The members of Natraj actively participate in competitions and have brought laurels to the college. They also successfully organized the NRITYANGANA- the Solo Indian Classical dance event at Aaghaz'20 which exhibited the devotion to various art forms from history. Natraj continues to grow forward with history leading their way.

Cultural Committee - Dr. Ankit Aggarwal (Convenor), Dr. Veenu Bhasin (Co-Convenor), Dr. Pinki Punia, Dr. Pardeep Singh, Dr. Bhawna Kohli, Kirti Yadav, Dr. Paramanand Sharma, Dr. Prabhat Srivastva, Dr. Pramita Mishra, RVS Chuimila, Suchitra Mehta and Nagendra Kumar

The Hyperion core team, which has put the college first and all else second, comprises of:
Bharat Gupta- President, Daksh Kr. Vig- Executive President, Apoorva Yadav- Vice President, Aditya Bhuker – Secretary, Akshat Agarwal - Joint Secretary, Nidhi Singh – Treasurer, Pranav Sharma - Co-treasurer, Garima Payla - Coordinator
